

Double Major: Criminal Justice & Sociology (2021)¹

See: <https://sociology.camden.rutgers.edu/undergraduate/major-requirements/> for courses that satisfy the Soc & CJ majors

Name: _____

At least half the courses in Criminal Justice and half the courses in Sociology must be taken at Rutgers University.

Courses Required	Minimum Credit	Course	Completed Sem/Yr	Senior Review
Lower division required courses in Soc/CJ:
Introduction to Sociology	3	920:101*	_____	_____
Introduction to Criminal Justice*	3	202:101*	_____	_____
Police & Policing	3	202:202	_____	_____
Confinement & Corrections	3	202:203	_____	_____
Criminal Courts	3	202:204	_____	_____
Introduction to Cultural Anthropology	3	070:101*	_____	_____
Upper division required courses in Soc/CJ:
Methods & Techniques of Social Research	3	920:301	_____	_____
Sociological Theory (offered in Fall only)	3	920:325	_____	_____
Theories of Crime and Delinquency	3	920:313	_____	_____
Ethics and Policy in Criminal Justice	3	202:449	_____	_____
Race & Ethnicity	3	920:316	_____	_____
Inequality in the United States*	3	920:332	_____	_____
Psychological Anthropology (070:307) or Individual and Society (920:357)	3	_____	_____	_____
Electives and other requirements:
Criminal Justice 300-level elective #1	3	_____	_____	_____
Criminal Justice 300-level elective #2	3	_____	_____	_____
Criminal Justice 300-level elective #3	3	_____	_____	_____
Criminal Justice 300-level elective #4	3	_____	_____	_____
Sociology or Anthropology elective #1	3	_____	_____	_____
Sociology or Anthropology elective #2	3	_____	_____	_____
Sociology or Anthropology elective #3	3	_____	_____	_____
Sociology or Anthropology elective #4	3	_____	_____	_____
(one of the four must be an Anthropology course)

Note: one of the criminal justice electives double-counts as the 5th required sociology/anthropology elective

*Denotes course name or number change as of Fall 2020.

¹ For new majors as of Fall 2021